1. Pharmaceutical industry – The pharmaceutical industry is the largest of the three industries, with sales of $10.5 billion in 1997. It is the only industry that has not experienced a decline in sales since 1990. The industry is dominated by a few large firms, with the top five firms accounting for 40% of sales. The industry is highly competitive, with many firms competing for market share. The industry is also highly regulated, with the FDA overseeing the approval of new drugs. The industry is expected to continue to grow, with sales projected to reach $15 billion by 2005.

SALBERG & COMPANY, P.A.

Certified Public Accountants and Consultants

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder of:
Vasiliou & Company, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Vasiliou & Company, Inc. which comprise the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended that are filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statements and supplemental information. Vasiliou & Company, Inc.'s management is responsible for these financial statements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Vasiliou & Company Inc. as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The information contained in Schedule 1 and Supplementary Note has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Vasiliou & Company, Inc.'s financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Vasiliou & Company Inc.'s management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with Rule 17a-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Description of Organization and Nature of Operations

Vasiliou & Company, Inc. (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company's business activities are private placement of securities, underwriter or selling group participant, and investment advisory services. The company has not been active for the current year.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared pursuant to Rule 17a-5 of the Securities and Exchange Commission Act of 1934. The classification and reporting of items appearing in the financial statements are consistent with that rule.

Revenue and Expense Recognition from Securities Transactions

Principal transactions consist of securities transactions with related revenues and expenses recorded on a trade-date basis.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the cash flow statement the Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents at December 31, 2016.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts disclosed in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Company's stockholder has elected to treat the Company as an "S" Corporation. As such, the individual stockholder is liable for federal tax on corporate income and receives the benefit of corporate losses.

Uncertain Tax Positions

In accordance with GAAP, the Company is required to determine whether a tax position of the Company is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. De-recognition of a tax benefit previously recognized could result in the Company recording a tax liability that would reduce stockholder's equity. This policy also provides guidance on thresholds, measurement, de-recognition, classification, interest and better financial statement comparability among different entities. Based on its analysis, the Company has determined that this policy does not have a material effect on the Company's financial statements. However, management's conclusions regarding this policy may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, on-going analysis of and changes to tax laws, regulation and interpretations thereof. The Company recognizes interest, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense. No interest or penalties have been recorded for the year ended December 31, 2016. Generally, the Company is no longer subject to income tax examinations by major taxing authorities for years before 2013.

2. Retirement Plan

The Company has a defined contribution retirement plan, which covers all employees that meet certain eligibility requirements. Contributions to the plan are made at the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors. The Company made no contributions to the plan during the year ended December 31, 2016.

3. Clearing Broker

There was no clearing arrangement for the year 2016.

4. Related Party Transactions

The Company occupies office space owned by the sole shareholder. No rent was charged to the Company.

5. Shareholder Equity

During 2016, no contributions were made by the stockholder.

6. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1, and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2016, the Company's net capital was $32,560 which was $27,560 in excess of its minimum requirement of $5,000. The ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .09343 to 1.

7. Rule 15c3-3

Vasiliou & Company, Inc.
Year Ended December 31, 2016

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In accordance with the FINRA membership agreement applicable to the Company, it is designated to operate under the exemptive provision of paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3. The Company does not hold customers' cash or securities.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Vasiliou & Company, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which Vasiliou & Company, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) Vasiliou & Company, Inc. stated that Vasiliou & Company, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Vasiliou & Company, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Vasiliou & Company, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Assertions Regarding Exemption Provisions
For Year Ended December 31, 2016

Vasiliou & Company, Inc. operates pursuant to paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3 under which the Company claims an exemption from SEC Rule 15c3-3. The Company is exempt from the reserve requirements of Rule 15c3-3 as its transactions are limited, such that it does not handle customer funds or securities. Accordingly, the computation for determination of reserve requirements pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 and information relating to the possession or control requirement pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 are not applicable

To our best knowledge and belief we have met the identified exemption provisions in 240.15c3-3(k) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception and qualify for the exemption under the rule.
